

THE 1996 FANCY FOOD Packaging Awards

Winners of Fancy Food magazine's prestigious sixth annual Packaging Awards Competition were announced during the Fancy Food & Confection Show, Jan. 19 to 22, in San Francisco.

Fancy Food received nearly 200 entries for the 1996 Packaging Awards Competition. Each product was judged for design, presentation, quality and "sellability."

Judges for the 1996 Packaging Awards included Kelley Wright, epicure department manager, Neiman Marcus; Nancy Kaplan, owner, Second Street Market; Terence Braxton, food services executive, Marshall Field's; Joanne Stone-Geier, editor, Retail Zone; Pat Daily, managing editor, Restaurants & Institutions; Kitty Kevin, new products editor, Food Processing magazine; and Diane Toops, news editor, Food Business magazine.

PACKAGING AWARD WINNERS

Nonperishables

First Place

Salute Sante!
Grapeseed Oil
Food & Vine Inc.

Unique, 1-liter stainless steel can with a slick design. Special reclosable screw top with built-in slow-pouring spout allows for easy use and clean closing.

